

Documentation of Mr. Gengin Goggles

Mr Gengin Goggles was a character made by a now fired developer of “Mortal Kombat Mythologies: Sub-Zero” on the Nintendo 64. He was a character that was unlocked upon beating the game five times straight, and then being crushed in one room one hundred times. It was insanely offensive, and caused a press outrage. I am here to verify that this moustached and goggled character did exist, and we are sorry for putting it in.” -Ed Boone, 2015
